NATURE OF WORK	This is complex professional family counseling work. Employees in this class perform the full range of complex professional duties which involve providing clinical treatment, including independent work in specialized areas of the profession. An employee in this class often serves as a team or group leader over less experienced professional staff.
MINIMUM KNOWLEDGE, ABILITIES AND SKILLS	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Knowledge of the principles, practices and techniques of social counseling work.• Knowledge of local laws pertaining to family matters.• Knowledge of techniques of effective marital, family, group and child counseling.• Knowledge of the dynamics of human behavior pertinent to diagnostic or treatment interviews.• Knowledge of the problems of personal and social adjustment with a psychodynamic framework.• Ability to utilize relevant personality theory, casework methods, supervision and consultation in clinical social work practice.• Ability to interpret and apply pertinent laws, rules, and regulations and other program guidelines.• Ability to function constructively under pressures and risks involved with persons having complex social, emotional and related problems.
MINIMUM EXPERIENCE AND TRAINING	Graduation from a recognized college or university with a Master's degree in Clinical Social Work, Psychology or closely related field, plus five (5) years of experience in individual, marriage & family counseling.
NECESSARY SPECIAL QUALIFICATION AND CONDITIONAL PROVISIONS	Possession of a valid license to practice in the Territory of Guam granted by the Guam Board of Allied Health as a Marriage and Family Therapist, Licensed Professional Counselor or a Licensed Mental Health Counselor or a license granted by the Guam Board of Social Work as a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in the Territory of Guam.
EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS PURSUANT TO 4 GCA § 4101 (c)(1)	Applicants must possess a high school diploma or show successful completion of a General Educational Development (GED) Test, or any equivalent of a general education high school program, apprenticeship program or successful completion of a certification program, from a recognized accredited or certified technical institution, in a specialized field required for the job.
DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS	To validate credentials, (e.g., Diploma/G.E.D., Certificate, College Transcript and/or licenses), an original or certified copy must accompany each employment application with the applicant's legal signature. Proof of certification must be provided to the HR Office within five (5) workdays from the date of the eligibility notice. Applicants shall be responsible to provide all required documents for each employment application and failure to provide proof may result in disqualification for employment consideration.
RATING AND SELECTION FACTORS	Candidates will be considered and selected based on merit except where a bona fide occupational qualification ("BFOQ") exists, without discrimination based on race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, genetic information, pregnancy, sex (including gender identity, or expression), sexual orientation, ancestry, honorably discharged veteran or military status, or any other protected classification under Federal or Guam EEO laws. Evaluation will be based on the candidate's education, experience and training as evidenced in the submitted application for employment form. A BFOQ is a selective factor, such as sex or age, that is required for a job that would otherwise be considered discrimination if it were not necessary to perform the job in question.

"The Judiciary of Guam is an equal opportunity provider and employer."

EVALUATION METHOD	Applicants will be rated on a scale between 70.00 and 100.00 percent on the basis of training, education and experience in relation to the minimum requirements of the position. A qualification test is not required to be certified eligible for the position, but the interview may consist of oral and /or written questions.
